

PITH AND POINT.

TALK is cheap—unless a lawyer does the talking.

THE worst kind of rheumatism is the spare roomatism.

PRIVATE DALZELL is color blind. He thinks his communications are read.—Danbury News.

IT is the hardest thing in the world to find a man to run for office in Turkey. The Government has nothing left to steal.

PATRICK comes to the morgue to claim a lost relative. "Has he any peculiarity by which he can be recognized?" "Yes, he is dumb."

"THE Unseen Hand" is the title of a new book. Probably the other fellow didn't have anything better than a pair of trays, and didn't dare to call.—Boston Post.

"THERE, I have it!" exclaimed Jones, who had been looking at Siapdash's painting. "The trouble is this, he uses too much ochre." "Yes," said Fogg; "medi-ara."

A PRIEST once asked a condemned criminal in a Paris jail, "What kind of a conscience have you?" "It's as good as new," replied the prisoner; "for I have never used it."

STUDENT (not very clear as to his lesson)—"That's what the author says, anyway." PROFESSOR—"I don't want the author; I want you!" STUDENT (despairingly)—"Well, you've got me."

A BROOKLYN man received $12,500 damages from a street-car company for the loss of a leg, and now the drivers have to stop their horses every few blocks to pull enterprising citizens off the rails.

A YOUNG man in great rage told two friends that he had just had his face slapped. "Ha!" said the friends, "we will rush off and demand satisfaction." "What!" he said, "a duel, too? Not much. Don't you call having your face slapped enough?"—Paris Figaro.

BUSINESS is business—"Doctor," asked Brown, "why don't you put Fenderson on a close diet? Don't you think it would be a benefit to him?" "Undoubtedly," replied the doctor; "but it would be no benefit to me. I might lose a patient, and when I lose a patient," he added, "I prefer to lose him in the regular way."

A PARTY of vegetarians who were boarding at a water-cure establishment, while taking a walk were attacked by a bull which chased them furiously out of his pasture. "That's your gratitude, is it, you great hateful thing?" exclaimed one of the ladies, panting with fright and fatigue. "After this I'll eat beef three times a day!"

A USEFUL life—"Sometimes," remarked Fogg, removing his cigar slowly, "I wish I had never been born, or that I had died in childhood." He puffed away for a moment or two and then added, with something like his customary cheerfulness: "Well, well, I have not altogether lived in vain. I have made a fairly-good husband for Mrs. F., a woman who never could have got anybody else to marry her."

Do you know the latest craze,
Mary Ann, Mary Ann?
Do you know the latest craze,
Mary Ann?
It is to spend your days
'Neath a big sunflower's rays,
Or to sit up with a dily,
Mary Ann.

BY CULTIVATING an interest in a few good books which contain the result of the toil or the quintessence of the genius of some of the most gifted thinkers of the world, we need not live on the marsh and in the mists. The slopes and ridges invite us.

"ONE cow's milk" may be worse than the mixed article, as proven by a case in which a baby fed on the milk of one cow, sickened and died of tubercular disease, the cow itself dying two months later of tuberculosis. Had the milk of that cow been mixed with milk obtained from a dozen others, the child would not have received daily such large doses of the diseased milk, and might have lived. Probably condensed milk is as safe a food as can be used when there is any doubt as to the quality of the ordinary milk served to a family.
